

The RAF Association Legacy Charter

1. We will always respect your privacy. We recognise and appreciate that your will is completely personal to you.
2. We also realise that, rightly, your family and loved ones will always come first.
3. Because we are committed to making a difference to those who have served our nation, we always encourage people to leave something to the RAF Association. But we recognise that it's your decision and you need to make it in your own time.
4. You can tell us that you've left a gift for the RAF Association if you want to, and we'd love to hear – but you don't need to and we won't keep asking.
5. If you choose to tell us about your will, we will give you the choice about how we talk to you about our work in the future. Some people like emails and letters, others don't. We will always respect your wishes.
6. We will give you and your family as much choice as we can about how and where your gift will be used to make a difference for the wider RAF family.
7. We will use your gift carefully and cost effectively so that it has the greatest impact for the RAF family.
8. If you decide to tell us about your will, we will give you the opportunity to be connected with our activities, so that you can see our work in action and get a real sense of what your gift will do.
9. You have the absolute right to change your mind about a gift in your will for the RAF Association.
10. We will handle whatever gift you leave us efficiently, with care, sensitivity and respect.

If you choose to tell us that you have left a gift for the RAF Association in your will, we will show our gratitude by awarding you with our exclusive 'Always' pin badge, for you to wear with pride.

If there is anything you want to know about your legacy, or the work you are helping to support, please get in touch. You can email Mrs Vinny Manak, our Legacy and In Memoriam Manager, at vinny.manak@rafa.org.uk or give her a ring on 0116 268 8791.
