

RAF Retired Service Card Because you're proud to have served

Leaving the RAF can feel like something of a loss. By joining the RAF Association we can offer you a RAF Retired Service Card so you can continue to prove your RAF credentials and continue to feel part of the family. The card is valid for ten years and costs only £10.

Your support can help us continue to be there for service personnel, veterans and their families who are suffering with injury, bereavement, loneliness, illness and financial difficulties.
